

KEY FACTS

Pennywise Consultants are independent expert advisors specialising in Income & Expenditure analysis for contentious probate claims falling under the Inheritance Act 1975. For a claimant trying to secure reasonable financial provision we can provide an analysis of prior expenditure and/or a budget for future income requirements. We also help defend unrealistic schedules of loss with our expertise in budget revision. What a person can expect to receive from an estate relies on facts and accurate figures.

WHAT WE OFFER

- Impartial analyses and reports.
- Detailed breakdowns and examination of past expenditure.
- Analysis of claimants' resources to counter a claim.
- Future budget estimates based on actual and projected spending, covering expenses and income needs requirements.
- Fixed price income needs packages based on localised, carefully researched property data.
- A bespoke service for clients with extensive expenditure requirements.

THIS SERVICE IS FOR YOU IF

- You are a claimant needing to submit a schedule of loss to attain reasonable financial provision.
- As a beneficiary you would like us to prepare a schedule to present information in support of a needs based defence.
- You are a dependent needing to establish the extent to which the deceased supported you financially.
- You are a cohabitee needing to establish the extent to which the deceased supported you financially.
